The Give-to Christmas Tree — Before and After

The picture reproduced here is not a moving picture but it almost is. They are three views of our "Give-to" Christmas tree which was held on the night of December 17th in our big dining room. You know in this we start out with a bare tree. When each person makes a contribution they pick up a decoration and tie it on the tree.

The picture at the left shows the first decoration being pinned on. The picture at the right shows the final results, over 300 decorations. The picture in the middle shows the activities in full swing.

Our Christmas gift this year went to a former Barium Springs student, George Faison. After leaving Barium he decided to study for the ministry. At that time he was married and had a family, but he managed to take care of the family and get his college degree and then he went to the seminary. Right in the middle of his seminary career his health failed him and he had to move to a dry climate. This was a great disappointment to him as well as a great expense. He says that our contribution will enable him to enter Austin Seminary. His letter of thanks for this gift is printed elsewhere in this paper.

My dear Friends at Barium,

This morning I received a very special Christmas present. I think it was the nicest Christmas surprize I have ever had, because I have never gotten a Christmas gift from so many friends at one time. The gift I am writing about is that one which each of you made possible at your "Give-to" Christmas tree.

I know that to just write a letter to say "thank you" could never let you know how much I appreciate your kindness, but maybe if I tell you what your gift is going to be used for, you will have some idea of what a wonderful thing you have done. By the gift that you have sent, I am going to be able to go back to the Seminary this next fall and finish my studies in preparing for the ministry. I am sure you have all heard of the great need there is in our church for ministers today, and then when you realize that each of you, by your gift at the "Give-to" Christmas tree, will have a part in helping fill this great need, you can really understand what a useful and generous thing you have done.

I am at loss to think of a single thing that could have brought a greater joy to me on this Christmas Day, or that could have been more useful, than the gift you have made. Your "Give-to" Christmas tree at Barium reflects the true spirit of Christmas more radiantly than all the "Take-from" Christmas trees I've ever known! From the depths of my heart I say, "Thank you", for sharing that which you have with me, and thus making this Christmas one of the happiest and most glorious ones I have ever known.

With love and Best Wishes to all,

George Faison.

The Message of the Pulpit

THE MINISTER'S MESSAGE

Psalm 90:12. So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

John Calvin calls this a problem in arithmetic. It is the same problem we experience when we have a certain amount of money to spend and we go to the store to spend it. That article is too high, we do not buy that. Another is not of good quality, we pass it by. Another we would like to have but it is not necessary.

Now, perhaps we may have little money, but there is something more valuable than that; it is Time. It is said that when she was dying, Queen Elizabeth offered her doctors any amount of money they asked, for one hour more of time.

We have a year before us. We do not have the promise of the whole year, though God grant we shall all live the year. But we have certain days before us to spend. Our problem is to spend them wisely and well for things worth while and so may find a good investment. That was the thought of the Psalmist and he seeks help from God.

The writer of these words is Moses, the man of God. Moses has been, from his youth, learned in all the learning of the Egyptians. But Moses looks and says, "So teach us." Moses has lived in the desert of Arabia in contemplation forty years, but in humility he looks to God and says, "Teach us." Moses has seen God face to face but he says, "So teach us."

He makes his prayer out of his experience with God. For many years he has had no home but has lived a nomad a wanderer on the face of the earth.

He looked to God to teach him because of the Eternity of God and the frailty of man. God knows all about time, the numbering of the days, because he is before time and above time. Before the mountains were brought or the earth was born, even from everlasting to everlasting, He is God.

But man is mortal. His time is so limited when he begins to know something, mortality crooks a finger at him and he is gone. Bishop Edward H. Buckersleth wrote a transcriptiin of this Psalm which brings out the thought most beautifully. "O God the Rock of Ages, who evermore hast been, What time the tempest rages, our dwelling place serene, Before the first creation, O God, the same as now, To endless generations the Everlasting Thou."

And then the second verse man's Mortality. "Our years are like the shadows on sunny hills that lie. Or grasses in the meadows that blossom but to die. A sleep, a dream, a story by strangers quickly told; An unremaining glory of things that soon are old." And Moses would suggest to us that we pray God to teach us, for God is wise and we lack wisdom. The children have a beautiful song:

"Teach us Lord thy wisdom
For Thou art wonderous wise
Teach us Lord thy wisdom

RUMPLE HALL

Hello Friends'

Here we are back again to bring you the news. We are getting our house painted up and clean. Our new matron arrived and we are all very glad to have her to come to live with us. She looks like she is very nice but when she has lived with us long enough we will learn to know and love her better, her name is Miss Grier. Mrs. Bryant is moving back over to the Women's Building and we will all miss her and hope to have her as our matron some other time. We sure had a good time when she was our matron. We are all doing good in school and hope to have 27 honor rolls next month. We will see you next month when the time comes.

Good Bye,

ANNIE LOUISE COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Here we are back again with lots to tell.

School was out for Christmas holidays December the nineteenth and started back the thirty-first of December. During that time we had a lot of fun. We don't see how our matron and big sisters put up with such excitement. Mr. Johnston let us go Christmas shopping. Everything we saw we wanted but of course that was impossible.

Christmas Eve, we went to bed but couldn't sleep. The next morning we were awake and had a wonderful Christmas. It snowed almost all day. We didn't play in it but still we had a good time with all our dolls, games and other nice things we got.

We want to thank each and every one of our friends for making our Christmas such a successful one. Also we want to thank Mr. Sams in Statesville for the show tickets.

It was nice to get away from school for a few days but it is nice to see all of our smiling teachers.

Report cards have come out for the third period. Eighteen of our little girls got on the Honor Roll. We are very proud of them. We hope all of us will make it next time.

It is getting cold now. Hope it snows soon. Any of you who pass by Barium will probably see a lot of snow men, women and children.

Hope all of you have made some New Years Resolutions. Our's is trying to be good. Our big sisters and matron are glad to hear that.

Be with you next month same time, same paper.

— Annie Louise Girls

Have a good time. My mother and father's name is Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Gooden and my grandfather and grandfather's name is Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gooden.

Your pal,

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST).

The 12th English Class wrote New Year's Prayers after studing a part of Tennyson's "In Memoriam". The following is Mildred Monroe's poem:

NEW YEAR'S PRAYER

Heavenly Father, who has been
Our only hope so true,
At the end of this year of hate and sin
We turn in prayer to you.
Be with us while we strive to do
All things pure and right,
And let us remember to turn to you
As day gives way to night .
Let us resolve within this year
To find a lasting peace,
Which will rid the world of doubt and fear,
And good will to others increase.
Be with people in foreign lands,
Who have not heard of Thee,
And may this year be one that stands
Out, in believers brought to Thee.
Cleansed from secret faults let us be
Refreshed to do Thy will,
Blessed by Thee who always sees,
The good that's in us still.
My heart is filled with thankfulness,
Knowing You're always near;
May I prove my worthiness
Throughout the coming year.

— Mildred Monroe.

The Message of the

Lord of earth and skies
Teach us, Teach us Lord thy wisdom".

I do not think he was here asking to know how many days he was to live. That would be a foolish prayer. And the number of the days is not the most important thing. One day properly spent is of more value than a hundred years of a misspent life. There are many things more precious than length of days. Patrick Henry said "Give me liberty or give me death" and that saying has leaped into meaning for us in these days.

No, the meaning of number here is to properly appraise; get an understanding of the brevity of life, and value of the days.

Now the Psalmest doesn't suggest that we number our years or our months, but our days. As never before my friends we must learn to pray "Give us this day our daily bread". "Lord for tomorrow and its needs I do not pray. Keep me my God from stain of sin. Just for today."

"The man Christ called a fool was one who said "I have food laid up for many days", but the Lord said, 'not for you, you will pull down no barns; you will build no more; you will eat no more big dinners; you will drink no more. This night thy soul shall be required of thee'. Rather should we live in the spirit of the words: "I expect to pass through this way but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

We come finally to the purpose of the prayer; the object of the teaching: the solution of this problem in arithmetic; the treasure to be bought by our investment of our days, that we may harvest a heart of wisdom.

Wisdom does not come to us as a free gift. We are not endowed with wisdom, we must acquire it. It is not bestowed on us because of piety or because of heredity. Moses out of the wealth of his experience says we are to so use the days of the spring time of our life, in sowing; and the summer of our lives in cultivating and watering and fertilizing; that in the autumn we may hope to harvest a heart of wisdom.

It does not take so long to collect an assortment of facts. The quiz kids show us that. What a galaxy of facts; what a store of knowledge is crammed in the pigion holes of their young heads! But the ability to make a proper application of facts; the correct use of knowledge; the use of our knowledge and experience to give direction in the use of our faculties; that is wisdom.

In the markets of the world how few of us spend our days for wisdom, of which Solomon said, "The merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her."

Yes if we have the earnestness of purpose to say to the sellers in Vanity Fair, as did Christian and Hopeful, "We buy truth". Then, with God's wisdom in our hearts, we shall be satisfied early in the morning with his mercies. We shall be glad and rejoice all the day. His works shall be made manifest unto His servants and His glory revealed unto their children.

And the God, who is covered with light as with a garmet, will shed his wisdom upon us through His Son, who is made unto us wisdom. So that the graciousness of God may be upon us, and the work which God has given us to do in so far as it accords with the divine plan and purpose and wisdom, will be forever established: and with faith we may pray. "Establish thou the work of our hands upon us, yea, the work of our hands establish thou it." So with courage we may look forward to the new year following

"One who never turned his back but marched breast forward.
Never doubted clouds would break.
Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph.
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better, sleep to wake."

SYNODS COTTAGE

Here we are again, telling you of our doings during the first month of the new year, 1948.

We went to the show last Saturday to see Roy Rogers in "The Bells of San Angelo". It was very exciting and kept us on the edge of our seats.

We got our report cards last week and ten of our boys were on the honor roll. They were as follows: Lawton Rice, Johnny Collins, Jerry Ellis, Jerry Thomas, Nat Craig, Jerry McArthur. Walter Plyler, Boyce Dean Smith, Memory Thompson, and Richard Blackburn.

Two little new boys have come to live with us now. Their names are Buddy Lane and Charles Ward. We hope they enjoy staying with us as much as we enjoy having them.

Jimmy Campbell, one of our "big" boys has moved to Lees Cottage. We miss him but are sure he will like his new cottage.

So-long for this time but look for us again next month.

— "The Wigglers"

INFIRMARY

"Santa" was extra generous to us girls at the Infirmary this Christmas. Not only did he bring the presents asked for, but extra gifts. And to top all the talk about not having snow this Christmas we woke up to find a white Christmas well on the way after all. God must have realized that it just wouldn't seem like Christmas without snow.

With the New Year came a new nurse to the Infirmary, Mrs. Finley. Not only is she a good nurse but a good cook also. We're sure that you would like to meet her.

Before many months we feel sure that the Infirmary will be one of the prettiest buildings on the campus. The bathrooms have been inlaid with green and black tile and before long the dining room is to have tile on it. Mr. Ervin and his workers have done quite a lot of painting around and Mr. White, the plumber and electrician, has been seen around quite a lot. We have new draperies for the dining room and for the windows at the end of the halls. I'm sure we'll be able to tell you more about these things next month so be with us.
